

NEPTONIANS

30mm Pulp Sci-Fi Aliens by Khurasan Miniatures for use in Retro Raygun by Hydra Miniatures

Neptonian Carnivore troops ready for the hunt!

BACKGROUND

The Neptonians are horrible carnivores living on the rogue asteroid Nepton, which they pilot through the very depths of space itself! Deep within the asteroid is the chamber of the Brain Tyrant Prime, leader of the Brain Tyrant caste, who receives flight instructions from the lord of the Neptonians, the warlike Ultra Fiend. Sitting at his controls, the Brain Tyrant Prime is able to change the asteroid's course and even adjust speed, plotting mayhem.

The Neptonians launch predatory raids on planets they pass — a time of great dread for the inhabitants. These awful beings do not attempt to conquer their enemies — their needs are more basic, primal, and ghastly. As alpha predators, they see other races as mere prey.

Neptonians do not seek subjects—they seek food!

Attacking without warning, Neptonian raiding parties advance remorselessly, firing their gamma-ray rifles, then attempting to tie the prey up in close combat. Attached Butcher specialists with catch nets help achieve this. Winged Fiend squads descend behind the foe, attempting encirclement. Gamma howitzers belch rocket bombs to drive the defenders from cover. Diabolically intelligent Brain Tyrants are in the ranks, bending their intellect to diabolical ends. A colossal Great Struglok will smash even the most powerful opponent with its massive war mallet. The entire force is under the command of the terrifying Ultra Fiend.
